

Privacy Policy

Last Updated: January 27, 2025

Global Cloud Fleet Inc. ("Global Cloud Fleet") is committed to protect the privacy of our customers. This Privacy Policy relates to Global Cloud Fleet, together with its affiliate, Positioning Universal Holdings Inc., (collectively "we", "us" and/ or "our"), and describes our policies and practices with respect to your personally identifiable information ("Personal Information") and other data that you may give us or that we may collect about you when using our website: www.ezfleettracking.com and our services ("Sites and Services"). It also describes the choices available to you regarding our use of your Personal Information and how you can access and update this information. The use of information collected through our service shall be limited to the purpose of providing the service for which the customer has engaged Global Cloud Fleet.

Our servers are located in the United States. Accordingly, if you reside outside of the United States or are a European Union citizen living in the United States, you agree that your information will be transferred to the United States and processed and stored in the United States in accordance with the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework (EU-U.S. DPF) and the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF. You also acknowledge and agree that your information may be transferred to facilities of those third parties with whom we share data as described herein.

Information Collection, Purpose, Use, Disclosure, and Sharing

We collect, use and share two (2) types of information: Personal Information and Non-Personal Information. Personal Information is information that can be directly or indirectly associated with a specific person or entity, including but not limited to, names, email addresses, usernames, passwords, and payment information. Non-Personal Information is information we collect or compile that by itself cannot be directly associated with a specific person or entity.

During the use of our Sites and Services, we collect and process information for the following purposes:

- Improving our websites and their user experience by analyzing their use;
- Diagnosing problems in our websites and providing notifications of issues and corrective actions;
- Communicating with you on contractual information (date established and when it is ready to expire), credit card payment information (ready to expire or expired credit card) and similar information or to communicate and respond to your requests, including customer support;
- Processing and fulfilling orders requested by resellers and customers;
- Providing information on Global Cloud Fleet's products and services, special offers & promotions, existing and pending regulations, and similar information;
- Conducting market research about our customers, their interests, and the effectiveness of our campaigns;
- Completing cybersecurity activities, including fraud prevention, software and IP privacy, misuse of services, and protecting the confidentiality of your account;
- Tracking of vehicles to aid in the recovery if a vehicle is stolen, abandoned or for general recovery purposes;
- Tracking of vehicles or assets for security and fleet optimization;
- Monitoring of driver behavior to improve driver safety (i.e., speed alerts and late driving) and to reduce maintenance and fuel costs;
- Monitoring drive hours for work time and regulatory compliance;
- Management reporting for business optimization;

- Integration with third party hardware or software solutions;
- Analyzing, troubleshooting, protecting, improving, and further developing our Global Cloud Fleet's products and services;
- As may be required by applicable law; and
- Other purposes to which you consent.

When accessing one of our websites, our system will gather information such as what kind of browser is being used, the user's operating system, their IP address, their navigation patterns, and referring site. Note that information is only gathered while the user is on a website owned or operated by Global Cloud Fleet. Global Cloud Fleet monitors how a user arrives at the website, but cannot, and will not, gather information about other websites the user has been on before arriving at a website owned or operated by Global Cloud Fleet.

When you register with Global Cloud Fleet, information is needed such as your name, company name, and email address. A billing address and credit card information is also required if you have chosen a paid account. We will use collected information for purposes such as processing and fulfilling your order, billing, service improvement, research, and other general purposes. We will share your Personal Information with third parties only in the ways that are required for the use of our service and as described in this Privacy Policy. We will not sell, rent, exchange or share your Personal Information with any third parties without permission.

Global Cloud Fleet will use your Personal Information to send a welcome email. We may also email account holders for the purpose of billing or to provide service-related announcements. As this is part of your service, you cannot opt out of any service-related email notifications. At any point in which a newsletter subscription is made available, we will use your name and email address to send the newsletter to you. At any time, you may choose to stop receiving our newsletters or other promotional emails by following the instructions provided in the email or through our website using the Contact Us form.

If you use a mobile device connected to a Global Cloud Fleet solution, we receive and process Personal Information about you which may include, but is not limited to, the monitoring of your driving behavior, hours driven and location. We process this data in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

If Global Cloud Fleet is involved in a merger, acquisition, bankruptcy, or sale of all or a portion of its assets, you will be notified via email or by notice on our website of any change in ownership or uses of your Personal Information, as well as any choices you may have regarding your Personal Information.

When necessary, Global Cloud Fleet will share the collected information in order to respond to lawful requests by public authorities, including to meet national security or law enforcement requirements, court orders, legal processes, or to investigate, prevent or take action against illegal activities, suspected fraud, or other circumstances concerning potential physical threats of personal safety, violations of Global Cloud Fleet's terms of service, or as otherwise required by law.

Cookies

Global Cloud Fleet uses a technology called "cookies" to store session information. A cookie is a small text file that is stored on your local computer and allows us to identify users who have previously registered or visited the site. Session cookies are automatically deleted from your hard drive at the end of a session. If you access the portions of our website that require a password, persistent cookies, which are not automatically deleted from your hard drive at the end of a session, are used. Most web-browsers offer the option to refuse any cookie, but they also usually accept cookies by default. You can change this default in most browsers and cause the browser to stop accepting cookies or to prompt you before accepting a cookie from a website. If you choose to decline cookies, you may not be able to fully experience the functionality for our website or services. Please note, there is no accepted standard on how to respond to Do Not Track signals, and we do not respond to such signals.

Security

In order to protect both the Personal Information and the general information that we receive from you through your use of Global Cloud Fleet's website, we have taken measures to ensure your security. When you enter sensitive information (such as your credit card number) on our online forms, we encrypt that information using secure socket layer technology (SSL). You can verify this by looking for a lock icon in the address bar and looking for "https" at the beginning of the address of the web page. We also follow generally accepted industry standards to protect the Personal Information submitted to us, both during transmission and once we receive it. While every precaution is used to protect your Personal Information and privacy, Global Cloud Fleet cannot guarantee the security of any information you disclose online. By using Global Cloud Fleet's service, you expressly acknowledge and agree that we do not guarantee the security of any data provided to or received by us through your use of Global Cloud Fleet's service, and that any information or other data received from you through your use of our service is provided to us at your own risk.

While we use encryption to protect sensitive information transmitted online, we also protect your information offline. Only employees who need the information to perform a specific job (for example, billing or customer service) are granted access to Personal Information. The computers/ servers in which we store Personal Information are kept in a secure environment.

Service by Minors

Global Cloud Fleet's service is a general audience service, and does not direct any of its content, products, or services specifically toward children less than thirteen (13) years of age. We understand and are committed to respecting the sensitive nature of children's privacy online. If we learn or have reason to suspect that a user of Global Cloud Fleet's service is under age thirteen (13), we will promptly delete any Personal Information in that user's account. If you have such information, please contact us as admin@gcfleettracking.com.

Global Cloud Fleet's service is intended for use by individuals who are at least eighteen (18) years old; or, in the case where your state or province has an age requirement greater than eighteen (18) years of age, the stipulated minimum age per your state or province; or, whose parent or guardian have provided consent to use Global Cloud Fleet's service. Any Personal Information submitted by a minor is in violation of our website terms of use. Personal Information provided by a minor and collected while visiting this website may be used as indicated in this Privacy Policy. Global Cloud Fleet is committed to protecting the privacy of children and has no intention of collecting Personal Information from minors. We encourage parents and guardians of minors to regularly check and monitor their children's use of email and other activities online.

Third Party Relationships

Due to the nature of our business, we work with a variety of third-party partners that may process and store your Personal Information on our behalf. These third-party partners are service providers and vendors that we have selected to provide us with services, and process some Personal Information on our behalf, to operate our Services (e.g., payment processing, customer service software solutions, IT and related services, telecommunication and text providers, location & map services, motion detection, order fulfillment, electronic signature solutions and resellers of our services, etc.).

We share Personal Information with third-party partners with your express, affirmative consent. For example, you may give us permission to share Personal Information with others for marketing use, authorize a third-party web client or application to access your account, or ask us to share your feedback with a business. These third-party partners are contractually obligated to safeguard any Personal Information they receive from us. This includes restricting them from using or sharing Personal Information except as necessary to perform the contracted services on our behalf or to comply with applicable legal requirements.

The use of your Personal Information by our third-party partners is governed by the privacy policies of those third-party partners, and is not subject to our control. Global Cloud Fleet does not assume or have any responsibility or liability for the Personal Information collection, use, security practices, or storage activities of the third-party partners used by Global Cloud Fleet to provide you with our Services.

In the context of an onward transfer Global Cloud Fleet has responsibility for the processing of Personal Information it receives under the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework Principles (EU-U.S. DPF Principles) and under the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF Principles, and subsequently transfers to a third party acting as an agent on its behalf. Any transfers will be in compliance with applicable law. Global Cloud Fleet shall remain liable under the Principles if its agent processes such Personal Information in a manner inconsistent with the Principles, unless we prove that we are not responsible for the event giving rise to the.

Third-Party Links

Global Cloud Fleet may insert links to third-party websites whose privacy practices may differ from those of Global Cloud Fleet. This Privacy Policy does not apply to such third-party websites. These links take you outside our service and are beyond our control. This includes links from customers or partners that may use Global Cloud Fleet's logo as part of a co-branding agreement. While we seek to protect the integrity of our service, Global Cloud Fleet is not liable for the content and activities of those sites. Your access to such websites is at your own risk. Please note that those other sites may send their own cookies to users, collect data, or solicit Personal Information.

Changes to Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to edit Global Cloud Fleet's Privacy Policy at any time and without prior notice to you to reflect changes in our information practices or relevant laws. We will post a notice on our website that points to this Privacy Policy to notify you of any substantive changes to the way we collect and use information. The most recent version of the Privacy Policy is reflected by the version date located at the top of the Privacy Policy. We strongly encourage you to read our Privacy Policy and regularly check for any changes.

If you continue to use our Site and/ or Services, you agree to be bound by any changes to this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree to these changes, please contact us so we can attempt to resolve your concern by providing an explanation of these changes. If this information is not acceptable to you, then your only remedy is to discontinue use of the Site and/ or our Services.

Questions

You can reach us using the information found on our "Contact Us" page on our website, by contacting our Data Protection Officer via the email listed in the "Data Privacy Regulations" section of this Privacy Policy or by using the mailing address provided at the end of this Privacy Policy. We will respond to your request to within thirty (30) days.

Data Privacy Regulations

The European Union's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and other emerging data privacy regulations, such as the UK's Data Protection Act and implementing regulations, provide data subjects that are users of our Site and Services with the following rights, described below. This section applies to EU and UK data subjects.

Right to Access

You have the right to request access to and/ or copies of the Personal Information Global Cloud Fleet holds on you. In order to ensure the safety of your data, Global Cloud Fleet will request identity verification of any data subject requesting access to Personal Information. As a result, the email must specify the following information:

- 1) Name, company, business address, and scope of information requested; and
- 2) Identification documents to demonstrate that the user is an employee of the named company.

Global Cloud Fleet will comply with the request within thirty (30) days of the request receipt; provided, the required verification document has been received.

Right to Rectification

You have the right to have your data corrected in the event any Personal Data held by Global Cloud Fleet is incorrect or incomplete.

Right to Erasure

You have the right to be forgotten or have your Personal Information erased. We will remove your Personal Information from our systems, after receiving written notification from you, once the retention is no longer necessary for the performance of services based on a contractual commitment or if there is not an existing need to retain this information for the establishment, exercise, or defense of any legal claims.

Right to Restriction of Processing or Transfer to another Data Controller

You have the right to restrict the processing of your Personal Information. You also have the right to transfer or port your Personal Information from Global Cloud Fleet to another data controller. After Service cancellation, data will not be retained on our servers if requested in writing via email. Global Cloud Fleet will abide by this right as long as the data transfer does not infringe on the contractual rights of a customer.

Right to Object

You have the right to object to the use of your Personal Information. This includes the right to withdraw consent to process Personal Information if consent was previously given and the right to object to the use of Personal Information. This could include the removal of your Personal Information from an account or a request to remove your email from a mailing list.

Exercising Rights

In the event you would like to inquire about exercising these rights, you may contact our Privacy/ Data Protection Officer at dataprotection@gcfleettracking.com.

It should be noted that if you choose to withdraw consent, restrict the processing of your Personal Information, or have your Personal Information erased prior to the contractual end of an existing Service agreement, this may result in Global Cloud Fleet discontinuing your use of the Site and / or Service.

Your information will be retained for as long as your account is active, needed to provide you with our services and in adherence to the data privacy rights outlined within this "Data Privacy Regulations" section. We will retain and use your information as necessary to comply with our legal obligations, resolve disputes, and enforce our agreements.

In compliance with the EU-U.S. DPF and the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF, Global Cloud Fleet Inc. commits to refer unresolved complaints concerning our handling of personal data received in reliance on the EU-U.S. DPF and the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF to JAMS Data Privacy Framework (DPF)

Dispute Resolution an alternative dispute resolution provider based in the United States, the European Union, and the United Kingdom. If you do not receive timely acknowledgment of your DPF Principles-related complaint from us, or if we have not addressed your DPF Principles-related complaint to your satisfaction, please visit <https://www.jamsadr.com/DPF-Dispute-Resolution> for more information or to file a complaint. The services of JAMS Data Privacy Framework (DPF) Dispute Resolution are provided at no cost to you.

Breach Protocol

In the case of a data breach, Global Cloud Fleet will notify affected users within seventy-two (72) hours of Global Cloud Fleet becoming aware of the breach. The notification will include the nature of the breach, measures to be taken to correct the breach and the primary point of contact for inquiries at Global Cloud Fleet.

Data Retention

Global Cloud Fleet will retain Personal Information for only as long as needed to fulfill the purposes for which the data was provided and to meet any contractual or legal requirements. Global Cloud Fleet will delete or anonymize Personal Information when there is no longer a legitimate business need for it. If it is not immediately possible to delete Personal Information because, for example, it has been backed up in archives by third party partners, then Global Cloud Fleet will work with its third-party partners to securely store the Personal Information and isolate it from further processing until deletion is possible.

Amazon Web Services (AWS)

Global Cloud Fleet has partnered with AWS to process and store all data for our Services in the United States. AWS has in place effective technical and organizational measures to secure Personal Information in accordance with GDPR. AWS also participates in the EU-US Data Privacy Framework, and the UK Extension to the EU-US Data Privacy Framework.

Cross-Border Data Transfers

Any Personal Information (including Personal Information) that we collect may be transferred, accessed, and processed outside of your country, as we and our service providers process data in the United States. If you are located in the EEA, the UK, Canada, or other regions with laws governing the processing of Personal Information that may differ from U.S. law, please note that your Personal Information may be transferred to countries that do not have the same data protection laws as the country in which you initially provided the information. We comply with applicable legal requirements providing adequate safeguards for the transfer of Personal Information to countries other than the country where you are located. In particular, we may transfer Personal Information to countries for which adequacy decisions have been issued by the European Commission, the Secretary of State in the UK or other relevant bodies in other jurisdictions, or use contractual protections for the transfer of Personal Information to third parties, such as the European Commission's Standard Contractual Clauses. You may contact us to obtain a copy of the safeguards we use to transfer Personal Information outside the EEA or the UK.

EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework (EU-U.S. DPF)

Global Cloud Fleet maintains its self-certification status under both the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework (EU-U.S. DPF) and the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF. These frameworks were specifically designed to facilitate companies in complying with data protection requirements when transferring personal data from Europe to the United States. For additional information on the Data Privacy Framework program and to view our certification, please visit <https://www.dataprivacyframework.gov>.

In relation to the collection, utilization, and retention of personal data transferred from the European Union, the United Kingdom, Global Cloud Fleet adheres to the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework and the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF, as outlined by the U.S. Department of Commerce. Global Cloud Fleet has certified to the U.S. Department of Commerce its adherence to the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework Principles (EU-U.S. DPF Principles) concerning the processing of personal data received from the European Union under the EU-U.S. DPF and from the United Kingdom under the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF. In the event of any conflict between the terms in this privacy policy and the EU-U.S. DPF Principles, the Principles shall take precedence. To learn more about the Data Privacy Framework (DPF) program and to view our certification, please visit <https://www.dataprivacyframework.gov/>.

In alignment with the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework (EU-U.S. DPF) and the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF, Global Cloud Fleet is committed to resolving complaints related to the collection or use of personal information transferred to the U.S. under the EU-U.S. DPF and the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF. Individuals from the EU and UK with inquiries or complaints are encouraged to contact Global Cloud Fleet at privacy@gcfleettracking.com or using the contact details provided in the "Contact Us" section of this privacy policy.

We commit to resolve DPF Principles-related complaints about our collection and use of your personal data. EU and UK individuals with inquiries or complaints regarding our handling of personal data received in reliance on the EU-U.S. DPF and the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF should first contact us via our "Contact Us". You have an option to invoke binding arbitration by delivering notice to us and following the procedures and subject to conditions set forth in Annex I of the Data Privacy Framework Principles.

We are subject to the investigatory and enforcement powers of the Federal Trade Commission (FTC).

If you feel that we are not abiding by this Privacy Policy, you should contact us immediately.

Your California Privacy Rights

If you are a California resident, you may have or exercise the following rights:

Right to know and access

You may submit a verifiable request for information regarding the: (1) the categories of Personal Information we have collected about you; (2) the categories of sources from which we collected the Personal Information; (3) the business or commercial purpose for collecting or selling the Personal Information; (4) the categories of third parties with whom we share Personal Information; (5) the specific pieces of Personal Information we have collected about you; and (6) the categories of Personal Information about you we have sold or disclosed for a business purpose.

Right to Delete

Subject to certain exceptions, you may submit a verifiable request that we delete Personal Information about you that we have collected from you.

Opt-out of sale

Request that we not sell your Personal Information (we do not currently sell Personal Information).

Not to be discriminated against

You have the right not to receive discriminatory treatment for the exercise of your CCPA privacy rights, subject to certain limitations.

Shine the light

We do not rent, sell, or share Personal Information with non-affiliated companies for their direct marketing uses as contemplated by California's "Shine the Light" law (Civil Code § 1798.83), unless we have your permission.

Please note that the CCPA does not restrict our ability to do certain things like comply with other laws or comply with regulatory investigations. We also reserve the right to retain, and not to delete, certain Personal Information after receipt of a request to delete Personal Information from you, where permitted by the CCPA or another law or regulation.

How to Exercise Your California Privacy Rights

Submit requests. To exercise your rights under the CCPA, or if you have any questions, comments, or concerns about our processing activities, please email us at dataprotection@gcfleettracking.com, submit your request using our "Contact Us" form, or write to us at Global Cloud Fleet Inc., 6974 Convoy Ct, San Diego, CA 92111.

Verification. Requests for access to or deletion of Personal Information are subject to our ability to reasonably verify your identity in light of the information requested and pursuant to relevant CCPA requirements, limitations, and regulations. To verify your access or deletion request, please authenticate your account by following instructions in the account verification email and providing data points that will allow us to process your request.

Authorizing an Agent. You are permitted to designate an authorized agent to submit requests on your behalf. In order to be able to act, authorized agents have to submit proof that they are authorized to act on your behalf, or have a power of attorney. We may also require that you directly verify your own identity with us and directly confirm with us that you provided the authorized agent permission to submit the request.
